SDPD TO SELL UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department will sell unclaimed property on Saturday, February 23, 2008. The auction will take place at the Scottish Rite Center in Mission Valley, 1895 Camino Del Rio South, (Mission Valley) in the Corinthian Room.

There will be a variety of items for sale, including 100 bicycles and our usual assortment of mixed lots. There are several interesting items including some Tiffany's jewelry, a new laptop computer, a new mini refrigerator, and musical instruments. There is also a large number of power and hand tools (some of them new). There are cameras, electronics, video game systems and sporting goods including golf clubs, three surf boards and skate boards. There are several IPODS, quite a few digital cameras, and video recorders and a number of gift cards. There are lots of new men's and women's clothes as well as jewelry.

Viewing of the items for sale will be from 9 until 10:00 a.m. only, on the day of the sale. The sale begins at 10:00 a.m., free parking will be provided.

Purchases may be made with cash or personal checks on local banks only with proper identification. Credit cards will not be accepted for payment. There will be no refunds and no guarantees on the property sold.

To arrange to shoot video prior to the sale please contact Mona Vallon in advance to schedule an appointment. Wednesday or Thursday mornings are best for coming to the Property Room to photograph or videotape items.

The recorded auction information line for the public is (619) 531-2767 and the next auction is scheduled for Saturday, May 10, 2008.
